

40 YEARS OF HUNTING WITH THE ARGO AND STILL GOING STRONG FOR OUTDOOR QUEST TV SHOW HOST

RICHARD MELLON AND OUTDOOR QUEST TV

Richard Mellon has been hunting and camping with ARGOs since the mid-1970's. The versatile vehicle has played a major part in his family's outdoor experiences for near half a century.

As an Official ARGO Outfitter Partner and the host of Canada's longest running, independently produced television hunting series, Outdoor Quest TV, Mellon has relied on the ARGO to get to some of Western Canada's most remote hunting territories.

"The ability to leave the roads and crowds behind was what drew us to the ARGO. The ARGO allows you to hunt wherever the game is without you worrying how you're going to get it out. It never fails," notes Mellon.

Now on its 15th year of Broadcast, the show sees hosts Rich and Sandi Mellon, TJ Schwanky and Vanessa Harrop, give viewers the best in high-adventure hunting from around the world. Outdoor Quest TV hosts don't hunt for the camera. They are real hunters that take viewers along on real hunts where life definitely isn't scripted. From the highest mountains in Western Canada and Asian, to the tsetse fly infested swamps of Africa, no adventure is too extreme. Outdoor Quest is more than a name, it's a lifestyle.

BIG GAME, UPLANDS, WATERFOWL HUNTING – GO WHERE THE COMPETITION CAN'T

From the mountains to the marsh to the savanna, hunting enthusiasts of every stripe agree that the ARGO is the better way to go. No matter what game is in season, ARGO's all-season mobility will get hunters there and back.

Bring friends, stack up gear - Argo lets hunters haul in heavy loads without leaving a heavy footprint. ARGO's 8x8 traction gets a firm grip without damaging environmentally sensitive areas, so hunter's favorite wilderness zones remain wild and pristine year after year.
